

BRAZIL & ARGENTINA

10 Unforgettable Days

This tour combines some of the most beautiful cities and destinations in the world. In Brazil, from Rio de Janeiro (The Marvelous City) to the natural wonder of the mighty Iguacu Falls. In Argentina, from Buenos Aires, Paris of South America and on to Calafate, the town at the end of the world from where we'll sail to the "Exploding Glacier" of Perito Moreno and on to Patagonia at the Southern tip of Argentina.

We'll start in the Brazilian city of Rio de Janeiro. Brazil is the largest country in South America in both population and in land mass. It's a breathtaking combination of cultures that have melded and mixed into one another within this vast expanse of spectacular natural riches. We'll continue to Argentina via the Iguacu Falls on its shared borders with Brazil and Paraguay. The falls are rightly considered the most awe-inspiring in the world. Argentina, the second largest country in South America, lies alongside the Atlantic Ocean in the East and the lofty Andes mountains range in the West, which separate it from Chile.

We'll visit the capital, Buenos Aires, with its beautiful European architecture. We'll spend a few days in Bariloche, nicknamed the "Switzerland of South America." And we'll end our tour in El Calafate located in the edge of a glacier park, from where we'll sail to view the natural wonder of Perito Moreno - the "Exploding Glacier."

Dinners in Rio at the Orthodox Jewish community; in Buenos Aires at a glatt kosher restaurant and with the Jewish community over Shabbat; in Bariloche at Chabad and in El Calafate, supervised kosher fish meals.

Day 1. Sunday. Rio de Janeiro (Brazil)

Arrival to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil's best-known city, considered to be one of the most beautiful cities in the world due to its topography, its beaches, coves and luxurious neighborhoods, as well as the imposing mountains that lie within the city (including the famous Sugarloaf). Transfer to the hotel where we'll meet our guide.

Day 2. Monday. Rio de Janeiro, Beach tour

Today we'll start our tour of the city with an exploration of its famous beaches, including the famous Copacabana – renowned throughout the world. We'll continue to visit the old city, after which we'll see the Samba Stadium (Sambadrome Marquês de Sapucaí), which every year hosts the largest carnival in the world. We'll also view the Maracana Stadium, the world's best-known soccer stadium with its 128,000 seats (!).

Day 3. Tuesday. Rio de Janeiro, Mount Corcovado, Tijuca Rain Forest

Today, we'll enjoy a jeep tour to the unusual reserve on Mount Corcovado for a spectacular panoramic view over the city. The sight from up there is remarkable in its beauty and explains why Rio is such a special city. We'll continue to the Tijuca Rain Forest, the worlds largest urban rain forest which is located in the heart of the city. The forest is home to thousands of plant species and animals which exist only in Atlantic rain forests. The forest is full of delightful niches with flowing waterfalls. We'll end the day at with tour of the Favelas of Rio, the shanty towns that almost surround the city (dependent upon receiving permits from the city authorities).

Day 4. Wednesday. Iguacu Falls, the Brazilian side

After breakfast we'll head to the airport for our flight to Iguacu Falls Nature Reserve, one of the largest in the world. The falls are located on the border between Brazil, Argentina and Paraguay. Upon landing we'll make our way directly to the Brazilian side of the falls. We'll be presented with the most amazing panorama of multiple waterfalls gushing over cataracts as far as the eye can see. In the evening we'll recommend going out to a folklore show.

Day 5. Thursday. Iguazu Falls, the Argentinian side – Buenos Aires

Today we'll cross the border to visit the Argentinian side of the falls. The visit on this side enables us to get very close to the cascading falls. Once we've seen both sides, we'll take a vote as to which side is better. After our visit we'll transfer to the airport for our flight to Buenos Aires.

Day 6. Friday. Buenos Aires, the Paris of South America

Today we will visit in this city of more than 10 million residents. We'll admire the wide boulevards decorated with trees and flowers, the magnificent squares with the presidential palace, the congress palace, the impressive synagogue, the opera building, the Law Courts, the football stadium and of course the Jewish quarter where many families live, along with Jewish schools and dozens of synagogues. We will hold a Yizkor ceremony at the site of the bombed Israeli Embassy, from where we'll continue to the district of Palermo, with its beautiful homes. We will visit the picturesque "La Boca" neighborhood of Italian immigrants and the magnificent "Riccoletto" cemetery. Finally, we'll enjoy some time at the famous "Florida" pedestrian mall – and the giant "Pacífico Gallery". We'll return to the hotel to prepare for Shabbat.

Day 7. Shabbat. Buenos Aires

After Shabbat services, kiddush and lunch, we'll take a walking tour in the area around our hotel. After Shabbat, we recommend the world famous Argentine "Tango Show".

Day 8. Sunday. Buenos Aires – Bariloche, "Diamond of the Andes"

This morning we fly to Bariloche or its official name San Carlos de Bariloche, the "Chocolate City" with its magical Andean landscapes. Bariloche is a mountain resort located in the Nahuel Huapi National Nature Reserve, with its amazing views, snow-capped mountains, lakes and chocolate centers, make this place attractive to over a million tourists a year. It is the leading ski resort in Argentina and is considered the informal capital of the Argentine Lakes region. The city and its surroundings are filled with countless stunning lakes surrounded by snowy peaks and lush forests. Upon landing we will embark on what is known as the short circuit, Circuito Chico. We will take a cable car to Campanario, located at 2500 meters above sea level and take in the panoramic view. We will hike in the Llao Llao (pronounced Yao Yao) Forest, located on the edge of the great Nahuel Huapi Lake.

Day 9. Monday. Calafate, the border of Tierra del Fuego, "Land of Fire, & Perito Moreno Glacier - Buenos Aires

Today we will fly to the Pampas in Patagonia. We'll land in the town of Calafate, located on the banks of Lake Argentina, bordered by the "land of fire". It is considered to be the "cultural end of the world" in the southern hemisphere. After landing, we will tour the area of Lake Argentina, to visit the "exploding glacier" "Perito Moreno" which rises 70 m above the lake. It's 5 km wide! Often, huge blocks of ice break off the glacier and fall into the lake. We'll stroll through the various scenic views and learn about this world wonder that attracts visitors from all over the world. Every now and again, as the ice breaks off the glacier, it causes a massive thunderous explosion, lending the name "exploding glacier" to Perito Moreno. At the end of the day, we will fly to Buenos Aires.

Day 10. Tuesday. Buenos Aires - Home Gateway

Our tour comes to an end after breakfast. We'll gather our belongings and transfer to the air port for our flights to our home gateways.
